INTERNATIONAL CINEMA

JAN 12-13	 YOUR NAME The highest grossing anime in history, Your Name tells an innovative and beautifully animated story about two teenagers, a boy from Tokyo and a girl from a rural mountain town, who magically switch bodies and embark on a journey to meet each other. JAPANESE 127 min 2016 MAMUO SHINKAI	 GOOD BYE, LENINI! In this comic parody of nostalgia for East Germany, Alex's mother, a good communist, falls into a coma and misses the fall of the wall. Waking up in 1990 with fragile health, Alex must now do everything in his power to make sure she doesn't see how things have changed. GERMAN 121 min 2003 WOLFGANG BECKERT	 ROOTS (TV SERIES) Roots , an epic saga of the American experience, loosely following author Alex Haley's family history from enslavement in colonial Africa down to emancipation, was the most watched TV series ever when it first premiered in 1977 and is an important representation of the history of race in America. ENGLISH 8 EPS 1977 BURNS JAN 23
JAN 16-20	 HINDI MEDIUM This popular Bollywood comedy explores questions of poverty and class as it follows a young couple through their struggles to get their daughter into a good English-speaking school so that she can have the best opportunities that come with English speaking society. HINDI/ENGLISH 150 min 2017 SAKET CHAUDHARY	 STALKER In this science fiction art film classic, a guide leads a writer and a scientist on a metaphysical journey through a post-apocalyptic wasteland in search of a mythical room where they will supposedly find all of their earthly desires fulfilled. New digital restoration. RUSSIAN 143 min 1979 ANDREI TARKOVSKY	 THE SEVENTH SEAL Perhaps Bergman's best known film, The Seventh Seal is an existential allegory about a disillusioned knight returning from the crusades to find his country in the grips of the Black Death. He challenges Death to a chess match and works to commit a single redemptive act. SWEDISH 96 min 1957 INGMAR BERGMAN
JAN 23-27	 THE KING'S CHOICE Based on a true story about three crucial days in April of 1940 during WWII, the King of Norway faces the choice: when the German armed forces invade and is faced with the ultimatum of surrender or die. NORWEGIAN/DANISH 133 min 2017 JØN FØRDE	 A TAXI DRIVER In 1970, a widowed taxi driver struggling to make ends meet agrees to take a German reporter from Seoul to Gwangju where they encounter large-scale demonstrations against the military government. KOREAN 137 min 2017 JANG HUNY	 THE OTHER SIDE OF HOPE A clear response to the current of rage crisis, Kautzma's perspective comedy follows a middle-aged woman named Watson who fortuitously crosses paths with Khared, a displaced Syrian refugee who has been denied asylum. FRENCH/ARABIC/SWEDISH/ENGLISH 130 min 2017 AND FANHMANI
JAN 30-FEB 3	 INTIMATE STORIES This award-winning Argentine film full of humanity and hope portrays three people's separate but intertwining journeys towards the same destination along a deserted road. Expertly acted, the film presents an appealing portrait of the Patagonian desert and its people. SPANISH 92 min 2012 CARLOS SOMA	 REBECCA Hitchcock's first American film, a striking gothic atmosphere around the story of a young woman trapped by the memory of her husband's first wife, Rebecca, who died mysteriously. New digital 4K restoration. ENGLISH 120 min 1940 ALFRED HITCHCOCK	 TEST Documenting among early nuclear testing, this worrisome Soviet-era live story tells the tale of a father and daughter who live a quiet life on a vast plain until two young men fall for the girl. RUSSIAN/NO DIALOGUE 96 min 2014 ALEXANDER NORT
FEB 6-10	 THE FLYING ACE Important because of its early use of an all-African-American cast, The Flying Ace is a mystery thriller about a veteran fighter pilot who returns home to take on his former job as a detective for a railroad company just in time to track thieves who stole the company payroll. VULGARITY 69 min 1928 RICHARD B. NORMAN	 SAWDUST AND TINSEL The aging owner of a failing traveling circus tries to regain his lost family after he left them for a young performer in this atmospheric early Bergman film that captures Bergman's fascination with the humiliations and frustrations of artists. SWEDISH 135 min 1993 INGMAR BERGMAN	 NAPPING PRINCESS Kamijima's dazzling animation presents parallel worlds that begin to impinge on one another in his sci-fi fantasy about a young girl forced to find herself while struggling to save her father in trouble. JAPANESE 111 min 2017 KENJI KAMIJIMA
FEB 13-17	 BLACK ORPHEUS The IC favorite retells the Greek legend of Orpheus and Eurydice as they fall in love and run through the fables of Rio during Carnival, away from Orpheus' spiteful fiancée and a villainous boss who dies. Non-professional actors engaged in authentic ritual and ceremony, bossa nova vibes, Carnival footage—a classic of "tropic cinema." PORTUGUESE 107 min 1959 MARCEL CAMUS	 THE LAST TRAIN HOME This documentary creatively looks at the great migration from village to cities currently underway in China by following a couple who return home for the holidays to find their daughter has dropped out of school to work in a factory. MANDARIN 87 min 2009 LIU JIN FAN	 AMÉLIE This crowd-favorite, romantic comedy presents a whimsical depiction of contemporary Parisian life. A fanciful young woman in Paris jolly orchestrates the lives of the people around her for the better as she deals with her own sense of isolation. FRENCH 99 min 2001 JEAN-PIERRE JEUNET
FEB 20-24	 CARAMEL This delightful romantic comedy centers around the daily lives of five women who regularly meet together in a beauty salon in Beirut as they explore questions about love, duty, and happiness. ARABIC/FRENCH 95 min 2007 MADINE LABANI	 LA STRADA In Fellini's symbol-rich tale of love and cruelty that moved Italy beyond Neorealism, a young woman is sold by her impoverished mother to the brutal strongman in a traveling circus, and lives as his partner until she finds a kindred spirit in a carefree circus fool. ITALIAN 155 min 1954 FEDERICO FELLINI	 MACHINES Through memorable imagery and interviews, this documentary portrays the grueling daily life of workers in a textile factory in Gujarat, India, in an exploration of the end of the global supply chain and its cost on those who fuel it. HINDI/ENGLISH 75 min 2014 RAHUL JAIN

FEB 27-MAR 3	 FÉLICITÉ Félicité, a Congolese singer, desperately needs money after her son has a motorcycle accident. This evocative portrayal of everyday life in Kinshasa with streetwise camera work is nominated for this year's Oscar for best foreign language film. LINGALA/FRENCH 129 min 2017 ALAIN GOMES	 IN A BETTER WORLD juxtaposing the global and personal while exploring ethical complexity in the modern world, this winner of the 2010 Oscar for best foreign language film tells the story of two young boys dealing with a bully in Denmark that parallels events experienced by one of their fathers in Africa. DANISH/SWEDISH 119 min 2010 SUSANNE BIER	 IN THIS CORNER OF THE WORLD This sensitive and touching anime by one of Japan's best animators plays out in Hiroshima during WWII where a recently married 18-year-old woman battles to maintain the will to live as she struggles to take care of her family while the realities of war creep ever closer. JAPANESE 130 min 2016 KUNIO KATSURU
MAR 6-10	 POLINA Co-directed by world-renowned French choreographer A. Preljocaj, Polina tells the story of a promising Russian dancer rigorously trained in classical ballet who discovers the freedom of contemporary dance, throwing away everything she knows into question. RUSSIAN/FRENCH 112 min 2016 ANSELME FRIELCAI & VILHELM MÜLLER	 STORIES WE TELL In a series of revealing interviews with her family members about her mother, and intersect with faux soap opera footage, filmmaker Sarah Polley explores how memory functions in family storytelling. ENGLISH 118 min 2015 SARAH POLLEY	 FILL THE VOID A young Haredi woman is encouraged to give up her marriage to a promising young man and instead marry her brother-in-law so that her deceased sister's child will remain part of their family in this complex and sensitive portrayal of an insular culture. HEBREW 105 min 2012 RAMA BURESTEIN
MAR 13-17	 COMEDY CLASSICS These comedy classics from a century ago starring some of the most beloved comedians of all time: Charlie Chaplin, Harold Lloyd, and Max Linder. All digitally restored prints. THE IMMIGRANT: CHARLIE CHAPLIN, 30 min 1918 US, SILENT KID KAPOEN: HAROLD LLOYD, 27 min 1920 US, SILENT KID KAPOEN: HAROLD LLOYD, 27 min 1920 US, SILENT	 SUMMER WARS While wooing his secret crush over the summer break, a teenage math prodigy accidentally puts the world at risk for a malicious AI program. Hosoda's anime creatively explores how our life is intertwined with actual and virtual realities. JAPANESE 114 min 2009 MAMORU HOSODA	 UNDER THE SAME MOON Hoping for a better life, a single mother leaves her young son in the care of his grandmother and illegally crosses the border into the US. When his grandmother dies, the boy begins the dangerous journey to join his mother. SPANISH/ENGLISH 109 min 2007 PATRICIA RUGGER
MAR 20-24	 THE PHILADELPHIA STORY One of Hollywood's best romantic comedies, this witty and crisp directed classic starring Katharine Hepburn, Cary Grant, and Jeremy Stewart tests traditional assumptions about gender roles by pitting a socialite against her ex-husband when he arrives at her family estate for her upcoming nuptials. ENGLISH 112 min 1940 GEORGE CUKOR	 THINGS TO COME Internationally acclaimed, this film beautifully portrays a modern woman (the incomparable Isabelle Huppert) who handles a series of life-shattering circumstances with majesty and serenity. FRENCH/ENGLISH/GERMAN 102 min 2016 MIA HANSEN-LOVE	 GOLDEN DOOR At the turn of the 20th century, a poor Sicilian farmer and widower decides to emigrate to the US with his entire family. Along the way he meets an English woman and together they face the challenging journey to be admitted into the US. ITALIAN/ENGLISH 120 min 2001 ENRICHETTA CIOALINI
MAR 27-31	 GENERAL CONFERENCE. ONLY TWO MOVIES THIS WEEK.	 THE LOST HONOR OF KATHARINA BLUM In this important example of New German Cinema, Katharina falls in love with a man she finds out to be a wanted terrorist. She is harassed by police and hounded by ruthless tabloids, testing the limits of her dignity and exploring the ways journalism mediates our realities. GERMAN 108 min 1975 VOLKER SCHLÖNDORFF & MARGARETHE VON TROTTA	 THE MISSING PICTURE Filmmaker Rithy Panh creatively intertwines clay figures, archival footage, and narration to recreate the missing images of his childhood as he processes the trauma experienced at the hands of Cambodia's Khmer Rouge between 1975 and 1979. FRENCH 96 min 2015 RITHY PANH
APR 3-7	 FACES PLACES Faces Places documents 89-year-old filmmaker Agnès Varda and 33-year-old photographer/artist J.J. as they travel around French villages and take epic-size photographs of locals to display them on public buildings in this charming documentary movie. FRENCH 90 min 2017 AGNÈS VARDA & J.J.	 THE YEAR MY PARENTS WENT ON VACATION Mauro goes to live with his grandfather in São Paulo in 1970 when his parents flee the politically repressive regime. Excited for the upcoming World Cup—the first to be broadcast by satellite—Mauro befriends the unique characters in his diverse neighborhood. PORTUGUESE/YIDDISH 110 min 2017 ADRIAN MARIN & JON	 KAUWBOY A young boy with a volatile father and absent mother finds solace in taking care of a young bird after it has fallen from its nest, which in turn helps him in his difficult relations with his father. DUTCH 81 min 2012 BOUDWEIN DIJDELA
APR 10-14	 BIG FISH Described as a Southern gothic picaresque, Tim Burton's adaptation of Daniel Wallace's novel explores the line between fact and fiction as a frustrated son works to understand his dying father's life. ENGLISH 125 min 2003 TIM BURTON	 SUMMER 1993 Six-year-old Frida struggles to adapt to her new life in the countryside with her loving uncle and aunt's family following the death of her mother. Summer 1993 is an autobiographical film festival favorite that stunningly recreates the perspective and experience of a child. CATALAN 97 min 2017 CARLA SIMÓN	 KILLING OF A HATMAKER Through archival documents and photographs, Catherine Berstain explores the story of her great-aunt Fanny Berger, a successful hatmaker from Paris who was interned in French camps and killed at Auschwitz in 1943. FRENCH 85 min 2016 CATHERINE BERTSTEIN
